CAYMAN DRAMA SOCIETY

The Society was formed on July 30th, 1970, by a group of people interested in promoting dramatic art on the Island. Basically its objects are:

1. To provide regular 'live theatre' for the entertainment and cultural benefit of the Island.
2. To encourage young people to acquire an interest in the aspects of theatre and to assist them whenever possible to improve their diction, deportment and public appearance.
3. To promote a greater understanding and social intercourse between all levels of the community by encouraging participation in the Society's theatrical ventures.
4. To raise funds for charity when appropriate.
5. To raise sufficient funds to eventually build a 'Little Theatre'.

Membership in the Society is available to all, the annual active membership subscription being J$5.00 per member and J$2.00 for associate membership (which will give such members priority in acquiring tickets for future productions). Any interested persons please contact John Shield, our Treasurer.

After this current production we hope to contrive to put on at least three plays every year so that NEW MEMBERS ARE WELCOME, either in an acting capacity or backstage.

We have room for your talent - so why not join? It's a lot of fun!

JOAN SHIELD

As far back as she can remember, Joan has been interested in the amateur stage, through her family's involvement. Apart from assisting backstage in numerous productions, she has appeared in a wide variety of plays, including: "Arms and the Man", "The Hollow", "Brush with a Body", "Toad in the Hole", "Letter from a General", "The Vigil", "She Stoops to Conquer" and "Doctor in the House".

"MISS SKILLON"

*...a rather sour spinster

VAL MORGAN

Val first began her acting at school performances in Wales and at the age of sixteen joined a touring Repertory Company. She then played four seasons in repertory throughout England and Wales and appeared in over one hundred different plays. After her marriage to John Morgan, who plays the Bishop in this production, she continued her theatrical career as an amateur and has directed or appeared for several Drama Societies in England, Trinidad and Guyana. Among the plays she has appeared in are "The Crucible", "The Deep Blue Sea", "Point of Departure", "The Barretts of Wimpole Street", "Rebecca" and "Summer and Smoke".

JOHN SHIELD

John's first connections with amateur productions were on the operatic/musicals stage, where he played most of the Gilbert and Sullivan comedy characters, and principal parts in "The Merry Widow", "Summer Song", "Merrie England", "Lilac Time", "Tom Jones", "Salad Days", etc. Progressing later into dramatics, his appearances include roles in "Keep in a Cool Place", "Gallows Glorious" and a festival version of "She Stoops to Conquer". John is now Musical Director of The Cayman Singers.

" MRS. PENELOPE TOOP "

...we must remember that

Mrs. Toop was an actress before she married ...and the niece of a bishop

SUSAN HASLETT

Susan only recently came to Cayman to attend the College of the Cayman Islands. She first became interested in theatre at her High School and whilst there attended drama classes at the Civic Theatre in Portland, Oregon. Her stage debut was for this group as Gretel in the children's play "Hansel and Gretel". From Portland she moved to Aspen, Colorado, where she attended further classes at the American Theatre Institute. Susan is keenly interested in getting a children's Theatre Group together in Cayman and has already started drama classes on Saturday mornings - so if you have any budding Hamlets or Ophelias in your family, send them along!

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO LOVERS OF
OPERAS AND CLASSICAL MUSIC

We intend to sponsor a series of recorded Concerts either on Thursday or Sunday of each week to offer you the opportunity to enjoy your favourite Operas and other Classical Works. The facilities of Club Inferno would be used for this purpose.

The admission to these Recorded Concerts would be free. They are being offered in an effort to fill the need for more cultural activities which are so badly lacking on the Islands. Suitable commentators would introduce each concert. Canapes and refreshments would be available at intermission.

In order to permit us to plan these concerts to please the greatest number of music lovers, would you be kind enough to fill in the attached coupon and return it to us as soon as feasible.

“LANCE CORPORAL CLIVE WINTON”

...a handsome young man and “very good” theatrical friend of Penelope ...they toured together...

KEN MORGAN

The part of Lance-corporal Winton marks Ken's first venture on to the “boards” except for a minor part some years ago in a school production of “She Stoops to Conquer”. We're glad though that he decided to make his debut for the Cayman Drama Society and look forward to seeing him again in future productions. Ken is a bachelor (girls take note!), works with the Bank of Nova Scotia Trust Company and has been in Cayman for two years.

“THE INTRUDER”

*...a German prisoner...
soon you will be crushed under the German heel! Heil Hitler!*

NICK PRESS

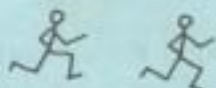

Nick is another newcomer to the Island and wasted no time in getting in touch with the Society when he heard a play was proposed. Although he has never played a “Jerry” before he has had a variety of parts in school productions including “A Christmas Carol”, “The Devil's Disciple”, “The Strong are Lonely” and “A Man for all Seasons”.

After leaving school he joined his local Drama Society in England and assisted backstage in a number of productions. As a result of this experience he now wields a mighty paintbrush!

Nothing commands attention like a telegram. It is urgent, immediate - its impact cannot be ignored. Through the rapid, efficient, worldwide telegraph channels of Cable and Wireless you can flash a message to the ends of the earth - to get the right things moving or stop the wrong things happening. To take action - and to get action - the surest way is to tell them by telegram!

"THE BISHOP OF LAX"

...he memorises his sermons ...

but broadminded...

JOHN MORGAN

Acting is by no means a new venture for John who has been keenly interested in all things theatrical since his "Variety" days in the Intelligence Service of the R.A.F. He has worked with several societies in England both as an actor, producer and general "washer-up". The plays he likes to remember best include Chekhov's "The Proposal" (which was a Festival Award), "Look Back in Anger", "Worm's Eye View", "Romanoff and Juliet", "The Long and the Short and the Tall".

He is married to Val Morgan, who co-produced this play and appears as Miss Skillon.

"THE REVEREND ARTHUR HUMPHREY"

...a mild little man...

with a bent for poetry...

RODERICK DONALDSON

"Old Stager" is a term that can very appropriately be used to describe Roderick and we do not mean this in the derogatory sense! He first appeared as "Puck" in a 1912 production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and has been involved in amateur theatre ever since, in various countries throughout the world. It's lucky for us indeed that his current Government appointment found him in Cayman at this time and we think you'll agree that Robertson Hare could hardly have played "Humphrey" better.

Other plays in which he has taken part include "The Browning Version" (in Tanganika) "The General" and "Fanny by Gaslight".

"SERGEANT TOWERS"*...from the Middlesex regiment...JOHN FURZE

John's acting career started at the age of fourteen with the Maddermarket Players, an amateur theatrical group in his home city of Norwich in England. With this group he played mainly in Shakesperian productions including "Richard II", "Merchant of Venice", "Love's Labours Lost" and many others. In 1961 John joined a semi-professional group known as "The Hospitables" and toured Norfolk and Suffolk giving concert parties to local hospitals and institutions in the area.

In 1968 whilst in Barbados he played the part of Felix in "My Three Angels".
