A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN/DIRECTOR

I welcome you all to another hilarious instalment(s) of the "FAWLTY TOWERS" series, sub-titled "The Anniversary Party" meets "The Germans".

"The Germans" is probably the most well known of all the "FAWLTY TOWERS" episodes with the John Cleese Hitler walk being the stand out. That both these episodes are the hardest to stage and act is an understatement. Thank goodness for the dedicated and talented cast who have had to endure my frustrations and "occasional" yells at them. I am glad I have not had to learn the lines.

"The Anniversary Party" was the most difficult to stage and has largely been rewritten albeit the hilarious dialogue has all remained and been added to (can you spot my work?). TV watchers of the series will most certainly note the change in locations! All changes were necessary to avoid the numerous scene changes in the original. Miss Tibbs is so hilarious that her role has also been expanded.

The only major differences to the original of "The Germans" is Terry's role, and the German contingent has been downgraded to just two people. Interestingly, three members of the cast can speak fluent German.

Thanks to all cast and crew for their patience in some very difficult and demanding rehearsals and especial thanks to Kendra, my producer, who had to play the part of Polly for most of the rehearsals. It is Kendra's first time with the CDS and I persuaded her to be my producer by telling her that the job was very rewarding with not much effort. I didn't expect her to believe me, but she did. That she had to cope with that monumental task and play Polly (the biggest female role in the play) has been no mean achievement. Thank you, Kendra, from the bottom of my heart. Also thanks to Penny Phillips for taking over the role of Sybil at very, very short notice (one week before we opened!).

Thanks, too, to another new member, Stefan Wesolowski, who has come forward to direct the next play, "Same Time Next Year" due to Bill Bazelmans' illness. Yes, the CDS is very alive and going from strength to strength.

By the way, if you have not received your monthly newsletter, "The Prospectus", it is because you haven't paid your 1996 membership. There are well over a hundred of you sinners, so please see Penny Phillips, our secretary. It is only ten dollars and a great bargain. New members are especially welcome and so are suggestions and comments - both good and bad.

And, lastly, thanks to you. We love seeing you at The Prospect Playhouse.
