MESSAGE FROM CAYMAN DRAMA SOCIETY

On behalf of the Cayman Drama Society we are delighted to be able to host the Cambridge American Shakespeare Tour ("CAST") for the first time in the Cayman Islands. We also welcome back to our shores Marthe De Ferrer the Director of this production of As You Like It, who we saw previously here as Tour Manager of last year's visit by the Cambridge Footlights International Tour. We are looking forward to a stunning performance of this Shakespeare favourite from a group of immensely talented young people.

We are even more pleased that CAST's inaugural visit to Cayman should come this year enabling us to continue our commemoration of the 400th Anniversary of Shakespeare's death.

As well as performing at the Prospect Playhouse, the CAST Team will be out in Cayman's Schools providing a series of workshops and related activities. With Shakespeare a core part of many curriculums, this will provide local students with invaluable insights as well as assisting Cayman Drama Society in delivering one of its core tenets of educating the community.

Audiences for As You Like It will also be the first to enjoy our re-furbished Auditorium. Our Theatre Manager, Paul de Freitas, and his dedicated team of volunteers and external craftsmen have done wonders in a short space of time, transforming the Auditorium into what you will see and experience today. Thank you Paul and Bill Mervyn! Regulars will also note changes in the Foyer and Bar areas and thanks in particular go to Sophie Gough, Wendy & Tracey Moore, Katie Cummins, Garrett Conolly and Cecil Palmer and his crew.

We give huge thanks to the sponsors who have helped enhance CAST's visit to Cayman: Walkers with who's support we have been able to offer $10 student tickets for Sunday's performance; Juliette and Stephen Price for the donation of the use of their fabulous villa as accommodation for CAST Team; Sharon and Andrew Galloway for supporting the costs of transporting the CAST Team around the Island. Additionally, big thanks to the CDS Volunteers in particular to Zoe Wall, Sophie Gough, Mel Hydes and Beverly Edgington.

Proceeds from As You Like It will go to Cayman Drama Society's Educational Fund. If you would like more details on the Fund or to make a contribution please contact treasurer@cds.ky

Enjoy the Show!
